GENEALOGICAL RECORD

OF THE

MARTIN FAMILY

1689 - 1934

A record was compiled and published in 1857, by Dr Samuel Davies Martin, of Winchester, Kentucky, who visited South Carolina, and wrote to relatives in every state where they were settled, and posted himself thoroughly. It was republished in 1886 by Hon. Alfred M. Martin, of Beaufort, S. C., - rewritten, corrected, and added to by Anne Carrington Martin Porcher in 1933 and 1934.

Dr. Samuel Davies Martin began his Martin family record (April, 1857) with these words: "Thomas Martin, born about 1720" and he followed only Thomas and Abram Martin's descendants, and at the end of his record,- "I send this pamphlet to many of my relatives; they will please inform me of any errors, and also any other information that they possess. I have not been able to find out who were the brothers and sisters of Abram and Thomas. In 1808 there was a Robert Martin who removed from Abbeville District, S. C., to Georgia, that was the son of one of the brothers. There were three sisters (if no more). One of them married Mr. Clark, one married Mr. Douglas, and one married Mr. White." He also said that "Luther Martin, of Maryland was the son of one of the brothers." It has been proven that the Luther Martin of Maryland was of a New England family, though born in New Jersey. However, John Martin (1683-1756) son of Abram had a grandson named Luther. This may account for the error.

Abram Martin, b. 1642, of this family, is found in Virginia in 1680. Whether or not he was born in Virginia is not known. Some genealogists claim that his father was John Martin, a son of the John Martin (1596-1673) who represented Lower Norfolk, Virginia, in the Assembly, 1651. Some also say that John Martin (1596-1673) is known to be the son of Capt. John Martin, a member of the Virginia Company and at one time a member of the Council. This cannot be as Capt. John Martin had an only son John who died in James City, Va., in 1607. (Alexander Brown's Genesis of the U. S., Vol. 2).

Abram Martin (1642) had a son John Martin, born in Virginia, 1683, whose descendants only, we follow in this record. It is said that he also had sons, James, William, and Samuel, and a daughter, name unknown. (Mrs. Jane Martin, Genealogist). (see Page 40).

Page 40 John Martin, 1st, son of Abram Martin, was born in Virginia, 1683, died 1756. His wife was named Letitia. Their children were:

CHAPTER 2

ABRAM MARTIN (Page 1), born February 17, 1716, died 1771, (son of John Martin and his wife Letitia). He was a Captain in the French and Indian War, under General Washington, and was present at Braddock's defeat at Fort Duquesne. He moved to South Carolina, lived in Edgefield District, was killed by Indians while looking at land in Georgia before the War of the Revolution. He married October 17. 1744, Elizabeth Marshall Smith (born March 7, 1726, died 1300) third child of John and Elizabeth (Markham) Marshall. John Marshall, her father, was son of Thomas and Martha Jane (Pendleton) Marshall. Elizabeth Marshall had married first, John Smith, Jr., son of John of Faquier County, Virginia, who married Mary Nelson (daughter of William and Mary Nelson) and had issue. Many of Lewis and Mary Smith's descendants have filled positions of honor and trust.

Both Abram and Elizabeth Martin are buried at Edgefield, South Carolina, Her sister, Ann Marshall had married Augustine Smith, a brother of Elizabeth's first husband, John Smith. Their brother, Thomas Marshall, was father of Chief Justice John Marshall.

All the sons of Abram Martin were in the Revolution. The wives of William Martin and Barclay Martin are represented in an engraving as dressed in their husbands' clothes and capturing important papers from a British Officer. The picture is called "Rachel and Grace Martin". An account of this is in Johnson's Traditions of the Revolution.

MOORMAN

Zachariah Moorman was born in the Isle of Wight, England in 1620. At 19 years of age he joined the British Army and became a Captain in Cromwell's army in the invasion of Ireland. After the subjugation of Ireland he lived there a few years probably near Belfast. He married a Miss Candler, sister or daughter of William Candler, a native of Northampton, England who was a Lt. Col. in Cromwell's Army and was awarded landed estate in Ireland and settled there.

Zachariah Moorman returned to the Isle of Wight and lived there a few years but being a sympathizer with Charles I, became an enemy of Cromwell for having the king beheaded and was therefore exiled from the British Isles.

In the Spring of 1669, Zachariah Moorman, his sons Thomas and Charles, his daughter Sally Ann, wife of Micajah Clark, Michael and Margaret Clark with their seven sons: (1) Micajah, (2) Francis, (3) Edward, (4) Roger, (5) William, (6) Thomas, (7) Christopher Clark, and David Terrill embarked at Southampton, England, in the ship Glasgow and sailed to Barbadoes, West Indies (Hottan's Lists, Barbadoes).

Michael and Margaret Clark and most of their sons settled on the Island where they owned land and slaves.

Early in 1670 Zachariah Moorman and family, Micajah Clark and Sally Ann Clark, joined the emigrants who passed Barbadoes on their way to South Carolina and landed with them near the site of Charleston, being the first permanent colony of South Carolina. During the same year the Moorman and Clark families proceeded to Virginia and settled at Somerton, Nansemond County.

Thomas Moorman was Vestryman in the Episcopal Church at Somerton, Nansemond County in 1671, but was converted to the Friends belief in 1672. (his mother was a Quaker).

As before stated the children of Zachariah and _____(Candler) Moorman were Thomas, Charles and Sally Ann. Thomas Moorman married Elizabeth and had Charles, Andrew, Mary and Thomas.

Charles Moorman, son of Thomas and Elizabeth _____Moorman, b. 1688, d. 1757, m. about 1703 Elizabeth Reynolds, b. 1690, daughter of Christopher Reynolds (see New Kent Register and Reynold's Wills).

It is said by descendants that Charles Moorman was 15 years old and Elizabeth Reynolds was 13 years old when they married. Elizabeth was 15 years old when her oldest son, Thomas was born (1705).

Charles and Elizabeth (Reynolds) Moorman settled near Green Springs, Louisa County, Virginia about 1704. They were Quakers and owned slaves (see "Woods' History of Albemarle County").

In 1723 Charles Moorman entered 254 acres in Louisa County, Va., in 1724 111 acres, adjoining. In 1735, he patented 400 acres in Albemarle (then Goochland). In 1736, he entered 433 acres in Louisa County. In 1736, he, with Charles Mills entered 4000 acres lying between Moorman and Mechurn Rivers, Va. Mag. IV, p. 228. Moorman's River was named for him.

In 1744, Charles was living in Louisa County, not far from Green Springs.

Charles and Elizabeth (Reynolds) Moorman had the following children:

1. Thomas Moorman, b. Sept. 14, 1705, d. Nov. 10, 1767, m. Rachel Clark. (Rachel Clark m. 2nd William Ballard).
2. Judith Moorman, m. John Douglas. They lived in Orange County.
3. Achilles Moorman, b. 1713, m. Elizabeth Adams, 1737. They livedin Bedford County.
4. Charles Moorman, b. 1715, d. 1778, m. Mary Adams, 1737.
5. Ann Moorman, m. Thomas Martin, 1740.

Will of Charles Moorman (May 9, 1775, Louisa County Will Book I, May 24, 1775) names daughter Ann, wife of Thomas Martin. ("Our Kin", page 672).

JOPLING

(Valentine Papers, Vol. 1, page 453)
(Henrico County Records, Pleasants Manuscript, Page 631).

Thomas Jopling, (born 1708, died 1789), father of Rebecca, was son of Ralph Jopling of Henrico County, whose estate was administered June 1720.

Thomas Jopling and his wife Hannah and oldest sons settled on the Rockfish River in Albermarle County, Va. He was Captain of the Amherst County Virginia Militia in 1771, and of the Minute Men of that county during the Revolutionary War. His four sons all fought in the Revolution. They were:

(1) Ralph Jopling, born 1743, was killed in the Revolution, leaving a widow, Catherine.

(2) Thomas Jopling, (born 1745, died March, 1837), married March, 1790 Mary Stephens, (born 1771), daughter of James Stephens, Jr. He Enlisted February 9, 1776 in Captain Thomas Walker's Virginia Company, and was discharged February 9, 1779.

(3) Josiah Jopling (born 1747, died 1797), married December 1, 1767 Elizabeth Lare (born January, 1749). He was one of the Minute Men of Amherst County Militia. Of their six children, the only one followed in this record is James Jopling, (born 1769), who married his first cousin Nancy Martin, daughter of Pleasants Martin and Rebecca Jopling.

(4) James Jopling, married Martha.

(5) Rebecca Jopling (born circ. 1756), married Pleasants Martin.

BRYAN LOVE

(History of Mafyland, Scharf, Vol. 2, page 165-169).

Mary Briscoe Bryan marries (1st) Major James Boyd, of the War of 1812, who died 1815, leaving her with two sons, William Watson Boyd, and Andrew Lewis Boyd. They left many descendants. She was the daughter of Martha Love Lewis (the widow of Capt. John Lewis, son of Gen. Andrew Lewis), and Capt. William Bryan, of Dunmore's war and the Revolution. Martha Love had three Lewis sons, Charles, Samuel, and Andrew, and a daughter, Eliza Lewis, who married (1st) John Luke, (2nd) James V. Ball, (3rd) Alexander K. Marshall, youngest brother of Chief Justice John Marshall. The children by Capt. William Bryan were:

(1) Thomas Bryan
(2) Watson Bryan
(3) Mary Briscoe Bryan (above)
(4) John Love Bryan

Martha Love Bryan was the daughter of Samuel Love, (son of Samuel, son of Thomas, son of William Love), of Charles County, Md., who removed to Virginia in 1778. Samuel Love was one of the Committee of Charles County, which met at Port Tobacco in 1774 and at Piccawax Parish, 1775, and was sent as representative to the Convention which met at Annopolis, 1775.

William Bryan, (born 1745)(died 1836), was the son of William Bryan (died 1806), son of William Bryan (born 1685, died 1789), who came from Ballerony, Ireland, to Pennsylvania, 1717. From there he moved to Southwest Virginia, in the vicinity of Roanoke, about 1738.

CHAPTER 3

Random Notes

(Thomas Family, /of Maryland/ by H. R. Spenser, page 102).

"The family of Martin possessed the great house of Darlington, by them erected 1123. Barons Martin possessed it for eight generations. The Martins descended from Martin of Tours, Normandy, b. 1030, (a General under Wm. the Conqueror), Lord of Combe Martin. A son, Baron Fitz-Martin, b. 1080, had a son Baron William Martin, who died 1269. Baron William Martin had sons William, b. 1160, and Sir Oliver Martin, b. 1186, and in 1193 went to the Holy Land, with Richard Coeur de Lion and shared his captivity until the death of Richard in 1199. Sir Oliver Martin afterward settled in Galway, Ireland and became founder of thirteen tribes. (Note by ACP: If this be correct, it is to be supposed that Abram Martin of Galway, founder of the Martin Family in Virginia traced back to one of the thirteen tribes founded by Sir Oliver Martin.) William Martin (1160-1215) was ancestor of Nicholas Martin (ancestor of Sir Nicholas Martyn, Knighted in 1625) and Robert Martin, ancestor of the Martins of Maryland."

(Cabells and Their Kin, Alexander Brown, page 14).

SIR NICHOLAS MARTYN is thought to be an ancestor of Dr. William Cabell, founder of the Cabell Family of Virginia, Sir Nicholas Martyn's granddaughter, Maria Prestwood having married Richard Cabell, great-grandfather of Dr. William Cabell.

The coat of Arms shown in the frontis-piece is that of Col. John Martin of Caroline County, Virginia, and is also claimed by descendants of Abram Martin.

Arms: Gules, a chevron between three crescents, argent.
Crest: Ar. a dexter hand brandishing a sabre trenchant ppr. hilt gold.
Motto: Auxilium Ab Alto.

(William and Mary Quarterly, Vol. 2, page 26 quotes from Virginia Gazette, Dec. 8, and 15, 1738).

An advertisement of COL. JOHN MARTIN of Caroline County for the return of his silver cup, which had been stolen, engraved with his coat of arms, described as having a chevron between three crescents.

(Some Colonial Families of Virginia, Cynthia Martin Polk)

COL. JOHN MARTIN of Caroline County, married Martha Burwell, daughter of Lewis Burwell and his wife Lucy Higginson. Since Col. John Martin came from the south of Ireland, as did Abram Martin, and both bore the same coat of arms, it is inferred that both had the same progenitors in the old country.

(Family History of Hughes, Martin, et., Lucy Henderson Horton).

"As a colonist the record of John Smith does not bear comparison with that of Capt. John Martin (1607). Smith stayed but two years in Virginia, while martin established prosperous communities in the self governing Commonwealth. When Martin visited Virginia in 1616, and in 1623, he labored in behalf of the Colony. A son drifted to Albemarle, and there Abram was born, living there in 1685. His son John, was born in 1683, and John's son Thomas, born in 1714".

The claim that Abram Martin was a grandson of Capt. John Martin, has not been substantiated. He might possibly have been a great-grandson. Likewise the statement that Abram Martin lived in Albemarle County in 1685, is doubted. Note the following paragraphs.

(St. Peter's Parish, NEW KENT County, by Rogers).

The Vestry chose THOMAS MARTIN, with others, 1751 and 1755, to process the land.

(Will and Deed Book No. 1, page 486, Records of Albemarle County, Va.).

August 18, 1750. Isaac Bates of Albemarle County to THOMAS MARTIN of NEW KENT County for 53 pounds and 15 shillings, 400 acres on Ned's Creek of the Fluvanna River.

(History of Albemarle County, by Rev. Edgar Wood,page 264).

THOMAS MARTIN, of Locust Grove, Albemarle County, settled on the South Fork of the Hardware River, 1764, died 1792. He and wife, Mary,--etc.

Records of Albemarle County show that his father, JOHN MARTIN had acquired a tract on Hardware River, February 24, 1749, and the county surveyor for John Martin (syled "Gent" in the index of the Surveyor's Book of Albemarle) listed 240 acres lying on both sides of the Hardware River, the 20th of December, 1754, John Smith, Jr., having been the surveyor.

JOHN MARTIN

There has been much confusion regarding two prominent men named John Martin who were in Virginia between 1680 and 1756; Col. JOHN MARTIN of Caroline County, who married Martha Burwell, and JOHN MARTIN, Gent. of KING WILLIAM County, whose wife was named Letitia.

Col. John Martin of Caroline County was Burgess of Caroline County, from 1738 to 1742, and has also been erroneously credited with being Burgess of King William County from 1732 to 1756. This, however, cannot be as he returned to England around 1750 and died in Ireland in 1760. Some say that it was his son John who was Burgess of King William County but references below will show that he had three sons, George, Samuel, and Lewis and no son named John, unless by a marriage previous to that to Martha Burwell. No such marriage has ever been mentioned.

(Va. Mag. of Hist. and Biog. Vol. 13, page 197-9, also Caroline County Records, Vol. 21, pages 249 and 372).

JOHN MARTIN (1683-1756) whose wife was named Letitia, owned land in King and Queen County, and must have been the John Martin who represented King William County or Burgess in the session 1752 to 1756, in which latter year he died and was succeeded by Francis West. John Martin had a patent of land on the Hardware River in Albemarle County, Va., Feb. 24, 1749 (Index of Surveyor's Book, Albemarle County Court).

(William and Mary Quarterly, Vol. 2, Robert de Jarnette).

At Clifton (in Caroline County, Va.) on an old Martin estate, about seven miles from Bowling Green, is an old grave stone with the following inscription: "Interred beneath this stone is the body of Mrs. MARTHA BURWELL, wife of Col. John Martin of Caroline County, who departed this life 27th day of May, 1738, in the 36th year of her age, and left three sons and four daughters."

(Va. Mag. of Hist. and Biog. Vol. 21, page 372-3).

On these pages is found a copy of the will of "JOHN MARTIN, of Dublin, Ireland, merchant". Quoted in part as follows:

"Brtoher George devised his lands in Milltown, etc.To trustee for my benefit. I have paid the sums to children of Brother James Martin.to daughter Agnes Martin 2000 pounds, to son Lewis Martin 500 pounds, to grandson George Barclay 200 pounds, lands at Milltown to eldest son George Martin*tosecond son Samuel Martin to third son Lewis,*eldest daughter Lucy,to second daughter Agnes Martin,and daughter Alicia, otherwise Campbell,etc."

Prerog. Ct. of Ireland, Will Book 1761, Fo. 213.

(There was a fourth daughter Martha (Patty) who married Mr. Perry).

This Col. John Martin has been proven to be Col. John Martin of Caroline County, Virginia. The fact that he is made executor of a will in Dublin, Ireland, in 1746, indicates that he was not in America at the time.

To be sold at the late dwelling house of COL. JOHN MARTIN in KING WILLIAM County.
A note under this item tries to identify this Col. John Martin with Col. John Martin of Caroline County. This is erroneous as it is now known that Col. John Martin of Caroline County, had left Virginia before 1750, probably before 1746, for in that year he was made executor of the will of his brother George Martin in Dublin, Ireland.

JOHN MARTIN, Gent., (1683-1756), of King William County (wife Letitia) was at the Abram Martin Plantation, June 13, 1755, according to his daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Marshall Martin's letter to her brother, Thomas Marshall. At the time Abram Martin was with Col. Washington at Fort Duquesne. John Martin was ill at the time.

Abram Martin was a Vestryman of Cumberland Parish, 1746 to November, 1754. After the French and Indian war he moved to South Carolina and was later killed by Indians while looking at land in Georgia.

As Cumberland Parish at that time embraced, among other counties, Halifax County, it is probable that the plantation offered for sale was the one from which the letter was written, that is the plantation of Abram Martin.

In 1676, Capt. John Martin (a sea Captain) is ordered 28 pounds eleven shillings and eleven pence out of Virginia's public money in England, by the Grand Assembly.

This Capt. John Martin may be John Martin, son of Capt. John Martin, (1596-1673) who represented Lower Norfolk County, Va., in 1651, in the General Assembly.

Capt. JOHN MARTIN had grant of 4550 acres at Martin's Brandon, Charles City County. This land was sold 1743.

GEORGE MARTIN and Lewis Wilden 160 acres, and George Martin singly 460 acres in New Kent County, September 22, 1682. (No. 7, p.192)

JOHN MARTIN had 307 acres in Charles City County, Oct. 28, 1697.

JOHN MARTIN 400 acres in Henrico County, July 11, 1719. (No. 10, page 458).

JOHN MARTIN 120 acres, on Beverly Run, St. Stephen's Parish, King and Queen County, February 21, 1720. (No. 11, page 51).

JOHN MARTIN, Jr., King and Queen County, 190 acres, July 9, 1724, (No. 12, page 50).

If this John Martin, Jr., is John Martin, Gent. (1683-1756), it would appear that he was son of John, son of Abram.

Will of PLEASANT MARTIN
In the name of God. I Pleasant Martin being in sound mind though weak in body do constitute and make this my last will and testament. First I give my soul to my God who gave it, in hopes of a glorious resurrection. I do bequeath to my son Pleasant all that he is due me and all that may be remaining after paying all my just debts and Captain John Miller's Virginia Company and guarded prisoners at Albemarle Barracks. From September 1, 1779, he served four months as first lieutenant in Captain Blain's and Mask Leak's companies, Colonel Holt Richardson's Virginia Regiment, and was at the surrender of Yorktown.

He resided in Albemarle County, Virginia, thirty-five years and then moved to Amherst County, Virginia, where he lived about twenty years, then moved to Bedford County, where he lived about fifteen years, thence to Wilson County, Tennessee.

He was allowed pension on his application executed September 26, 1832, while a resident of Wilson County, Tennessee, where he lived about six years. He died October 16, 1836.

The name of soldier's wife is not given. In 1837, GEORGE MARTIN was referred to, as one of four of the soldier's heirs, relationship not stated, also "two sets" of grandchildren were then referred to, the names of their parents are not designated.

Very truly yours,
A. D. Hiller,
Assistant to Administrator.

(Note ACP)

His wife, Rebecca Jopling had predeceased him. GEORGE MARTIN, Pleasant's son had married twice and had two sets of children.

Both give extracts from the records of THOMAS MARTIN, and both leave the impression that he had only one wife Mary (Suddarth). In fact Mary was his third wife. By her, Thomas had only one child, Abram.

The following is a copy of a letter from Elizabeth Marshall Martin (widow Smith), wife of Abram Martin (b. 1716) son of John Martin, (b. 1685), to her brother Thomas Marshall, father of Chief Justice John Marshall:

Plantation,
June 15, 1755.

Dear Brother,

We are in much confusion and distress because of the burning of our outhouse last night. They have taken away every horse and fowl, and soon after they, left, the barn was found to be burning. They did not come to the house and I do not think that they were Indians. Gen'l. Braddock and Staff camped here last night. He informed Father Martin that Abram had taken his command to join Col. Washington on their way to Duquesne. I would it were so, that you and Mary could come here for a time. Two of the children have measles and Father Martin has the Dysentery and I am in bed with a baby three days old and too weak to get up. I fear the return of the enemy. Do come, if possible, We have no horse to send for you. David will take this to you. I Have brought all the blacks into the house.

Your affectionate sister,
Elizabeth Marshall Martin.

We have two gun's.

Rev. ABRAM MARTIN

OGLESBY - Note by Judge T. J. Fagg (see page 2-F).

The Oglesby home in Albemarle County was part of the "Nicholas Meriwether Grant", and later belonged to James Clark who sold it and moved to Lincoln County, Va. It was near the present town of Keswick and along the highway which Tarleton and his men passed on their raid on Monticello, June, 1781.

Against these raiders Mildred Martin (Clark) Oglesby bravely defended her home in the absence of her husband, Jacob Oglesby, who, as recruiting officer, had gone to Charlottesville, to muster recruits for the Continental Army.

About two miles north easterly from Keswick at the easterly base of South West mountain, is the private burying ground where lie Jacob and Mildred Oglesby and many of the Clarks.

PETER GARLAND married Elizabeth Martin, daughter of Benjamin Martin, who after his death married Daniel White, son of Thomas Martin White and Mary Ann White.

(Cumberland Parish, by L. C. Bell, pages 27 and 29).

ABRAM MARTIN (1716-1771) was a member of the Vestry of Cumberland Parish from 1746 to November 7, 1754. (He was sworn in with Col. Clement Read. /Pleasants Mss./ He was on a committee to select a location for a church and to see after its being built. He also was Justice of the County Court of Lunenburg, from 1750 to 1753. He resided above Cub Creek. (Note, AC₱). It must have been about 1758 that he moved to Edgefield, South Carolina, and afterwards met his death while looking at lands in Georgia in 1771.

ADDITIONS

Susanna Martin's birth is recorded in St. Peter's Parish Register, New Kent County, also mentioned in Colonial Families of the Southern States of America, by Hardy.
